

for ANZAC Day

5.45am

25th April 2019

In front of the chapels, Spital Cemetery,
Hady Hill, Chesterfield

S41 0EZ (53.232208, -1.416162)

All are most welcome as we mark the service, loss and sacrifice of so many during World War One

ANZAC Day is the national day of remembrance for Australia and New Zealand.

In particular it recalls the conflict in Gallipoli and the Dardanelles and remembers those of the Australian and New Zealand
Army Corps (ANZAC).

The gates to Spital Cemetery are open all the time so please, feel free to come from 5am if you want to be there when Dawn breaks at 5.05am. We will be there, putting out tea lights so do come and say hello. Enter the cemetery by the Top Gates on Hady Hill (A632) 53.232770, -1.414984 and you will be able to park alongside the roadway between the gates and the chapels. Or park on Cemetery Road but enter that, it is one way, via Spital Lane and Valley Road.
